How to setup the Expert Advisor (MondayOpening.ex4)

There are only 3 settings that you can make changes to the EA.

1. ExpireOn – This is the expiry time of the Binary Option. The default is Trade15min. When a Binary Option order is opened, it will expire in 15 minutes. Please note that expiry times that you can choose are 1 min, 2 min, 5 min, 10 min, 15 min and 30 min. However, it will depend on whether the broker platform and select currency pair allow you to trade at these expiry times.
2. Lot1 – This is the Lot Size. It depends on the broker that you are using. For some broker, 10.0 means $10. And for some broker, 0.01 means $1. You need to check the lot size that the broker support.
3. DisplayOn – Set DisplayOn to True allows you to see the weekly and current Candlestick information on the screen. Because the EA only trade once every start of Monday, the current candlestick information allows you to know if the EA is still running.
